

Jan Nijland

Member of the Board of Directors of the APG Groep on an interim basis responsible for Finance & Risk

Jan Nijland has been appointed as a member of the Board of Directors on an interim basis starting March 3rd, 2021 and is responsible for Finance & Risk.

Jan Nijland has ample management experience in the financial sector. He previously worked for De Nederlandsche Bank, from 1993 until 2006, first in the position of (senior) supervisor and later on in the position of Head of the Internal Audit Department. From 2006 to 2010 he was working at ABN AMRO Bank NV in the position of Global Head Group Audit for Risk, Compliance & Legal and after that, in the position of Global Head Group Audit Group Functions. He started working at APG in 2013 as the Director Group Internal Audit and he held the position of CFRO ad interim in the Board of Directors from May 2017 to January 2018. Jan studied Fiscal Economics and Business Economics at the Groningen University and also obtained his Postdoctoral title of Chartered Accountant.

Additional functions

Jan has a number of additional functions. He is a member of the Supervisory Board of Stichting Pensioenfonds Vliegend Personeel KLM and a member of the Supervisory Board of Stichting Algemeen Pensioenfonds KLM.