

Ronald Wuijster

Member of APG Group's Executive Board, responsible for Asset Management

Ronald Wuijster is member of the Executive Board of APG Group responsible for asset management. He is also Chairman of the Board at APG Asset Management.

Ronald has over 20 years of investment experience, of which 16 years in commercial asset management environment and 5 years in pension fund management. From 2010 to 2017, Ronald served as Chief Client Officer at APG Asset Management and then as Chief Investment Officer. Ronald worked as Managing Director Strategic Portfolio Management from 2006 to 2010, first at ABP and from 2008 at APG. Before Ronald joined ABP, he worked at Robeco Groep N.V. where he initially started in 1990 as Senior Portfolio Manager and after several positions ended his career in 2006 as Director of Research.

Ronald studied Business Economics and law at Erasmus University Rotterdam, Finance and Accounting at the London School of Economics in London and Psychology at Leiden University.

Ancillary positions

Ronald is a chairman at Dufas, member of the Board of Directors of FCLTGlobal, chairman of WEF Biodiversity initiative Davos, member of UN Global Initiative on Sustainable Development and chairman of the juniorencommission Apeldoornse Mixed Hockey Club.